Stock Market

New York, January 20.—Prices ineved forward quickly in the carly trading to-day. Sharos of all the best known roads and of a number of industrial corporations rose from 1 to 2 points, with a few more active extensive gains a few more active extensive gains a few more active extensive gains as a considerable underlying strength. A variety of influences of conflicting character were brought to play on the market. The most important were the reports of the Harriman roads for December, the strength of the shares of the Vanderbilt lines, and the quarterly statement of the United States Steel Corporation.

United States Steel rose a point in the early trading, and although it subsequently sold off to below 65 for the first time this year, it bounded isack to 64 in the late trading.

The Steel Corporation's net earnings of $23.105,000 were well up to expectations. It remains true, however, that the net earnings of the Steel Corporation are nearly $2.000,000 less than those of the corresponding period of 1910, when business conditions were none too good, and that they are barely sufficient to pay the dividends on the common and preferred stock, in spite of the fact that no appropriations have been made this year for depreciation.

The appearance of the Harriman statements showing a dacrease in net earnings in December of $620,000 events of the stock market to the lowest points of the day. Chicago and Northwestern reported a reduction of $120,000 in net for last month and a gain in net of $519,000.

The preparation was explained by its report of a gross increase of nearly $2,000,000 for last month and a gain in net of $519,000.

The preportioned strength of the stocks of the Vanderbilt roads made them the corter of speculative interest.
